

Market Art Fair announces changes in management

Market Art Fair is the leading Nordic contemporary art fair. The fair was founded in 2006 and has since then become a key driver of Nordic contemporary art.

Market Art Fair announces the departure of its Director Saskia Neuman who has resigned from the company. Saskia will leave Market as of November. Sara Berner Bengtsson is appointed new Managing Director and will assume her role on October 1. Sara will take over the leadership of Market Art Fair together with Josephine Van De Walle as Artistic Director.

Sara Berner Bengtsson joins Market Art Fair from Galerie Forsblom in Stockholm, where she has been working since 2016 and has held the position of Director for the past two years. Sara obtained a Master in Art Business at Sotheby's Institute of Art and has studied art history and economy at the University of Lund. In addition, she has been a dedicated Chairwoman of the Swedish Gallery Association (Svenska Galleriförbundet).

Sara comments, "The management and Board of Directors of Market Art Fair have developed the fair into a vibrant platform for contemporary art and I look forward to taking on the challenge of conducting future fairs to create cultural meeting places and business opportunities for the Nordic art market."

Josephine comments, "I am thrilled to continue the work of ensuring continuity, quality and further development of Market Art Fair together with Sara, while providing the best possible platform for galleries and artists from the Nordic region and a great experience for collectors, curators and all of those interested in art."

Market Art Fair and the Board of Directors would like to thank Saskia Neuman for her successful work as Director. "During her tenure, Saskia has established Market Art Fair's premiere position on the contemporary art scene in the Nordic region. We will continue this work and wish Saskia the best for her future undertakings", says Johan Ericsson, Chairman of the Board of Market Art Fair.

The next edition of Market Art Fair will take place 23-25 April 2021 at Liljevalchs Konsthall in Stockholm.
